

Section 16.17.07 Qualifications of Person(s) Performing Geologic Hazard Reports.

- (1) An individual whose expertise is in the field of engineering geology or Geotechnical Engineering and who desires to perform geologic hazards evaluations in Wasatch County should present proof of their qualifications to the Wasatch County Staff and be placed on a list of individuals or companies who have presented this documentation, and whose reports will be recognized by Wasatch County.
- (2) A qualified engineering geologist requires at least a four (4) year degree in geology, and/or engineering geology from an accredited university, and at least three (3) full years of experience in a responsible position in the field of engineering geology.
- (3) A qualified Geotechnical Engineer requires licensure in the state of Utah with the focus of their engineering experience being in Geotechnical Engineering and at least four (4) years of experience in a responsible position in the field of Geotechnical Engineering.
- (4) Upon presentation of proof of qualifications, the individual will be added to the list of those whose reports will be recognized by Wasatch County as having submitted such evidence, but shall not guarantee the quality or competence of the engineer. Submission shall only be required once to be placed on such list. Presence on such list should not be construed to be a recommendation by Wasatch County that the individual is qualified to perform the work, but only that the individual has presented documents to Wasatch County sufficient to allow Wasatch County to accept reports for processing from that individual. Proof of qualification should include:
 - (a) Copies of degrees received from accredited universities in an appropriate field of study pertaining to Engineering Geology and/or a copy of their professional engineering license.
 - (b) A letter from a credible person (employer, past employer, etc.) verifying your expertise and responsible experience in the field of Engineering Geology or Geotechnical Engineering.
 - (c) A copy of a resume no more than one (1) year old.
